Soul of

Esther B. Ternet

Born: November 17, 1898

Died: September 28, 1975

Age: 76 yrs. 10 mo. 11 days

GENTLEST Heart of Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy Judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O merciful Saviour send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace.
Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Wolf & Dessauer a landmark for years

By DICK ISENHOUR
Of The News-Sentinel

For more than 70 years, the Wolf & Dessauer store was among downtown Fort Wayne's most vibrant and vital residents.

From modest beginnings in a two-story building at 70 Calhoun St., the store continued to grow over the years and at one time was one of the nation's finest department stores.

The original store, founded in 1896 by Sam Wolf and Myron Dessauer, occupied a two-floor building with about 12,000 square feet. The business met with quick success, and it soon became apparent to Wolf and Dessauer that their building was not big enough.

After a long search, the store made its first move, to a four-story building with a basement at 119 W. Berry St., site of the present Fort Wayne National Bank building. Wolf & Dessauer remained in that location for a several years, and in 1919 moved again, to the corner of Calhoun Street and Washington Boulevard, becoming the hub of downtown retail activity.

A year after the move, Wolf & Dessauer incorporated, and the partners sold controlling interests in the firm to a group of local businessmen, including G. Irving Latz, Samuel L. Smith and J.P. Doody. Under Latz's leadership, the store continued expanding and it was during this era, historians note, it became one of the prominent stores in America.

Latz, who started in the retail trade at the age of 13, came to Fort Wayne as a young man in 1915, to manage the ready-to-wear department at another city store, Frank's Dry Goods. In 1917, he joined the Wolf & Dessauer staff, also in ready-to-wear, but two years later was promoted to secretary and general manager of the store. It was during his tenure as an officer of the store that he and the others purchased it.

During the four decades Wolf & Dessauer was on the corner, it expanded its operation and eventually occupied the entire block along the north side of Washington, from Calhoun to Clinton streets.

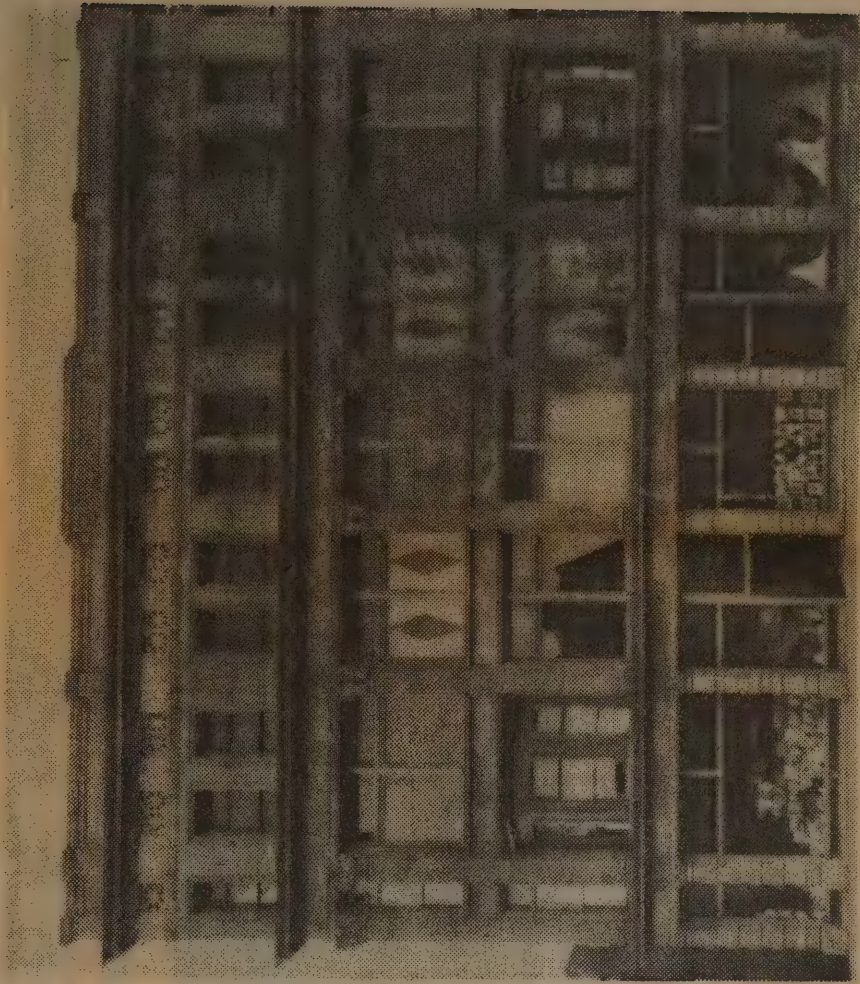

In 1957, Wolf & Dessauer announced it would be building a new store downtown. The decision to buck the trend of moving to the suburbs and build downtown instead set up the largest real estate deal downtown in the city's history.

The Downtown Realty Co., which would later erect the company's new four-story store, had put together the property of more than 10 owners before securing the site, the block bounded by Clinton, Wayne and Barr streets.

Before construction could begin, several landmarks dating back to the 1890s had to be razed, including the Salem Evangelical Reformed Church, the Kindle Hotel and the Pape Paint Shop.

Several of the old buildings the company had constructed along Washington Boulevard were kept in operation, used for appliance and television departments, the service department and offices.

These buildings were destroyed, however, during a major fire the afternoon of

This four-story building in the 100 block of West Berry, was the second location of the Wolf & Dessauer store downtown. The department store was located here from 1904 until 1919.

Feb. 10, 1962.

The fire broke out in a storage room at 114 E. Washington Blvd., shortly before noon and spread quickly. The blaze raged out of control and threatened to engulf the entire block. Firefighters fought the flames for more than 10 hours before bringing them under control.

Eight persons were injured in the fire, and damage was estimated at more than $2 million.

Many of the operations conducted in those buildings moved to the new store. Wolf & Dessauer vanished from the scene in December 1969, however, when L.S. Ayres purchased the operation.

Dry goods merchant recalled by street name

By KEVIN LEININGER
Of The News-Sentinel

1899 was not a good year for the family of George DeWald, one of Fort Wayne's pioneer merchants.

Born in 1831 in Germany, DeWald came to Fort Wayne at the age of 18 and quickly built up a retail dry goods store at the northeast corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets.

Fort Wayne historian B.J. Griswold wrote in 1917 the George DeWald Co. had "long been a leader in commercial and industrial progress in Fort Wayne... few names have been more notably conspicuous as exemplifying civic loyalty and impressive business progressiveness."

Under DeWald's guidance, the dry goods store flourished until December 27, 1899, when a disastrous fire gutted the store and destroyed more than $175,000 in merchandise.

George DeWald, though, never saw the blaze. He had died about six months earlier, on June 27, 1899.

At that time, the fire was the worst to ever strike a Summit City department store. Even so, the company quickly rebounded under the direction of George DeWald's oldest son, Robert W.T. DeWald. Reorganized in 1900, the George DeWald Co. moved into the wholesale business — a business which was thriving by the time Griswold wrote his history in 1917.

But the city did not forget "old man" DeWald, whom Griswold called a "man of fine character and much ability."

George DeWald — the young man from Germany who became a successful Fort Wayne retailer — is today remembered by the street which bears his name.

The DeWald Dry Goods Store at Calhoun and Columbia after the $175,000 fire of Dec. 27, 1899.

REGULATION MEANS COMPETITION

At present, the gas industry is unregulated. The utilities, the gas companies that transport the gas, the producers who get the gas out of the ground. Production is controlled by a bureaucratic system of 28 different artificial categories, the main effect of which has been to encourage the production of more expensive gas. We suggest a two-step solution to the problem: 1. Get rid of Government regulation on the producers and allow them to sell gas on the pipelines and utilities on a competitive market. 2. Maintain monitoring of gas utilities by Public Utility Commissions to help make sure that any market changes are reflected in the price to consumers.

dictated by the market

Individual removal of Government regulation would simply put 1000 independent gas producers into a competitive market. It could allow gas pipelines

The new and old owners of Hoemig's Market: Tim and Janet Didier and Glenn and Melva Hoemig

3-30-1983

After 40 years, husband-wife grocers pass market, patrons to younger pair

By GARY PENNER
Of The News-Sentinel

A man walked up behind Glenn Hoemig 40 years ago in the aisle of Hoemig's neighborhood grocery and grabbed his head with both hands.

The man squeezed his head as if it were a melon, and Hoemig asked what he was up to.

"I'm looking for the soft spot. There has to be one up there for you to start a grocery store here," Hoemig still recalls the man saying. "There were seven other grocers in the neighborhood then, including the big A&P."

Hoemig and his wife, Melva, both now 72, ran the store at Huffman and Andrew streets since that day back in 1943 until earlier this month. They made a point of greeting neighborhood customers by name every time they came to shop. Melva even kept the store going for a year when Hoemig was drafted into the Army during World War II only three months after the store opened.

"(The day he was drafted) was heart sickening. My business was given no consideration. I was told I'd be of more use in a defense factory than a grocery store," Glenn Hoemig said.

Bad legs and feet kept Hoemig on the West Coast, and after a year as a cook in Washington state, he returned to the business he loved. There was little rest during 40 years of meat cutting, produce buying and shelf stocking. He never spent an entire week at their lake cottage with twin sons Tom and Jerry. There were always customers to be waited on.

But now their health is failing. Both have had heart attacks, and Melva had hip and open heart surgery a couple years ago. Retirement looked inviting, so the Hoemigs sold the store's inventory and leased the building March 14 to Tim and Janet Didier.

The Hoemigs plan to relax at their 921 Morrow Way home. "The first month of retirement I'll rest up," Hoemig said. "The second month I'll break that job jar my wife has been keeping." They also plan some travel, he said.

But Hoemig doesn't plan to test the Didiers' heads for soft spots. He knows the market is a sound investment that's going to be around for a long time.

"People come in to a store like this because they like the personal attention. You want a pork chop cut one inch thick, you got it. You want a pork chop cut a half-inch thick, you got it. This store will work because of the personal touch and the fact that it's handy. A lot of people don't like to line up in the grocery to be checked out."

Hoemig's first rule of business is to be personable. "I don't like hearing someone holler 'next', so I don't do it here."

His business philosophies have proven effective. The market is the only neighborhood grocery left in the Northwest Central Neighborhood. Rogers, Scott's and Maloley's grocery chains all have stores nearby, but they don't intimidate Didier.

"The longtime customers we've met so far are sometimes shocked to hear that the market has been sold, but they're glad to know that we're continuing the tradition of a husband-wife team," Didier said.

Tim Didier, 29, and Janet, 26, plan to change little about the market except the name. Both smile and nod at the thought of standing in Hoemig's shoes 40 years from now, selling the store to another couple starting in the grocery business. Owning the store has been Didier's dream since he was a boy.

"I began working in the grocery business when I was 11, working for my uncle, Jim Didier." He worked at the Didier Meat Market at Broadway and Taylor streets, one of seven Didier markets in Fort Wayne then. He worked at the Didier Brothers Meat Inc. at 502 E. Pettit Ave., owned by his father, Marshall, and uncles Jack and Jim Didier. But four years ago he left to become a salesman for Parrot Packing Co. Inc. and began to yearn for his own grocery business.

"I've waited a long time to get this business. I intend to treat the customers just like Hoemig did. You have to. They're your bread and butter."

FRANCIS
HANSEN
DIXON

FRANCIS HANSEN DIXON, WAS BORN JUNE 29, 1853 IN DURHAM, ENGLAND, THE SON OF _____ DIXON AND MARY L. _____ (GOLLS*) HE CAME TO AMERICA WITH HIS PARENTS AS A BABY. THE DATE OF THEIR IMMIGRATION IS NOT KNOWN, HOWEVER, IF FRANCIS WAS A BABY, WE WOULD ESTIMATE BETWEEN, 1854 AND 1857. THE FAMILY LIVED IN ILLINOIS, ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI AND DENTONVILLE, KANSAS, AS THE FAMILY MIGRATED WEST.

FRANCIS, PROBABLY RECEIVED HIS EARLY EDUCATION IN THE RURAL SCHOOLS WHERE HE LIVED AND WORKED AS A FARM HAND AND CONBOY.

HE WAS ABOUT 20 YEARS OF AGE WHEN HE MARRIED CATHERINE LOUISE (_____) AND THEY RAISED A FAMILY OF FIVE CHILDREN, THOMAS R. 8-21-1874; WILLIAM, 10-30-1878; FRANK, 6-25-1881; EDWARD MICHAEL 9-9-1883; AND MARGARET DIXON, 12-12-1885. FRANCIS AND CATHERINE^() WERE DIVORCED ABOUT 1890.

MR. DIXON, THEN MARRIED, AGNES COLE, IN KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, OCTOBER 28, 1892. * MRS COLE CAME FROM ENGLAND, LOOKING FOR HER HUSBAND, WHO HAD INHERITED SOME LAND IN THIS COUNTRY, SHE NEVER LOCATED OR HEARD FROM HIM AGAIN. ^(PRESUMED DEAD OR KILLED) SHE HAD BEEN IN

THIS COUNTRY SOME TIME BEFORE MEETING, MR. DIXON.

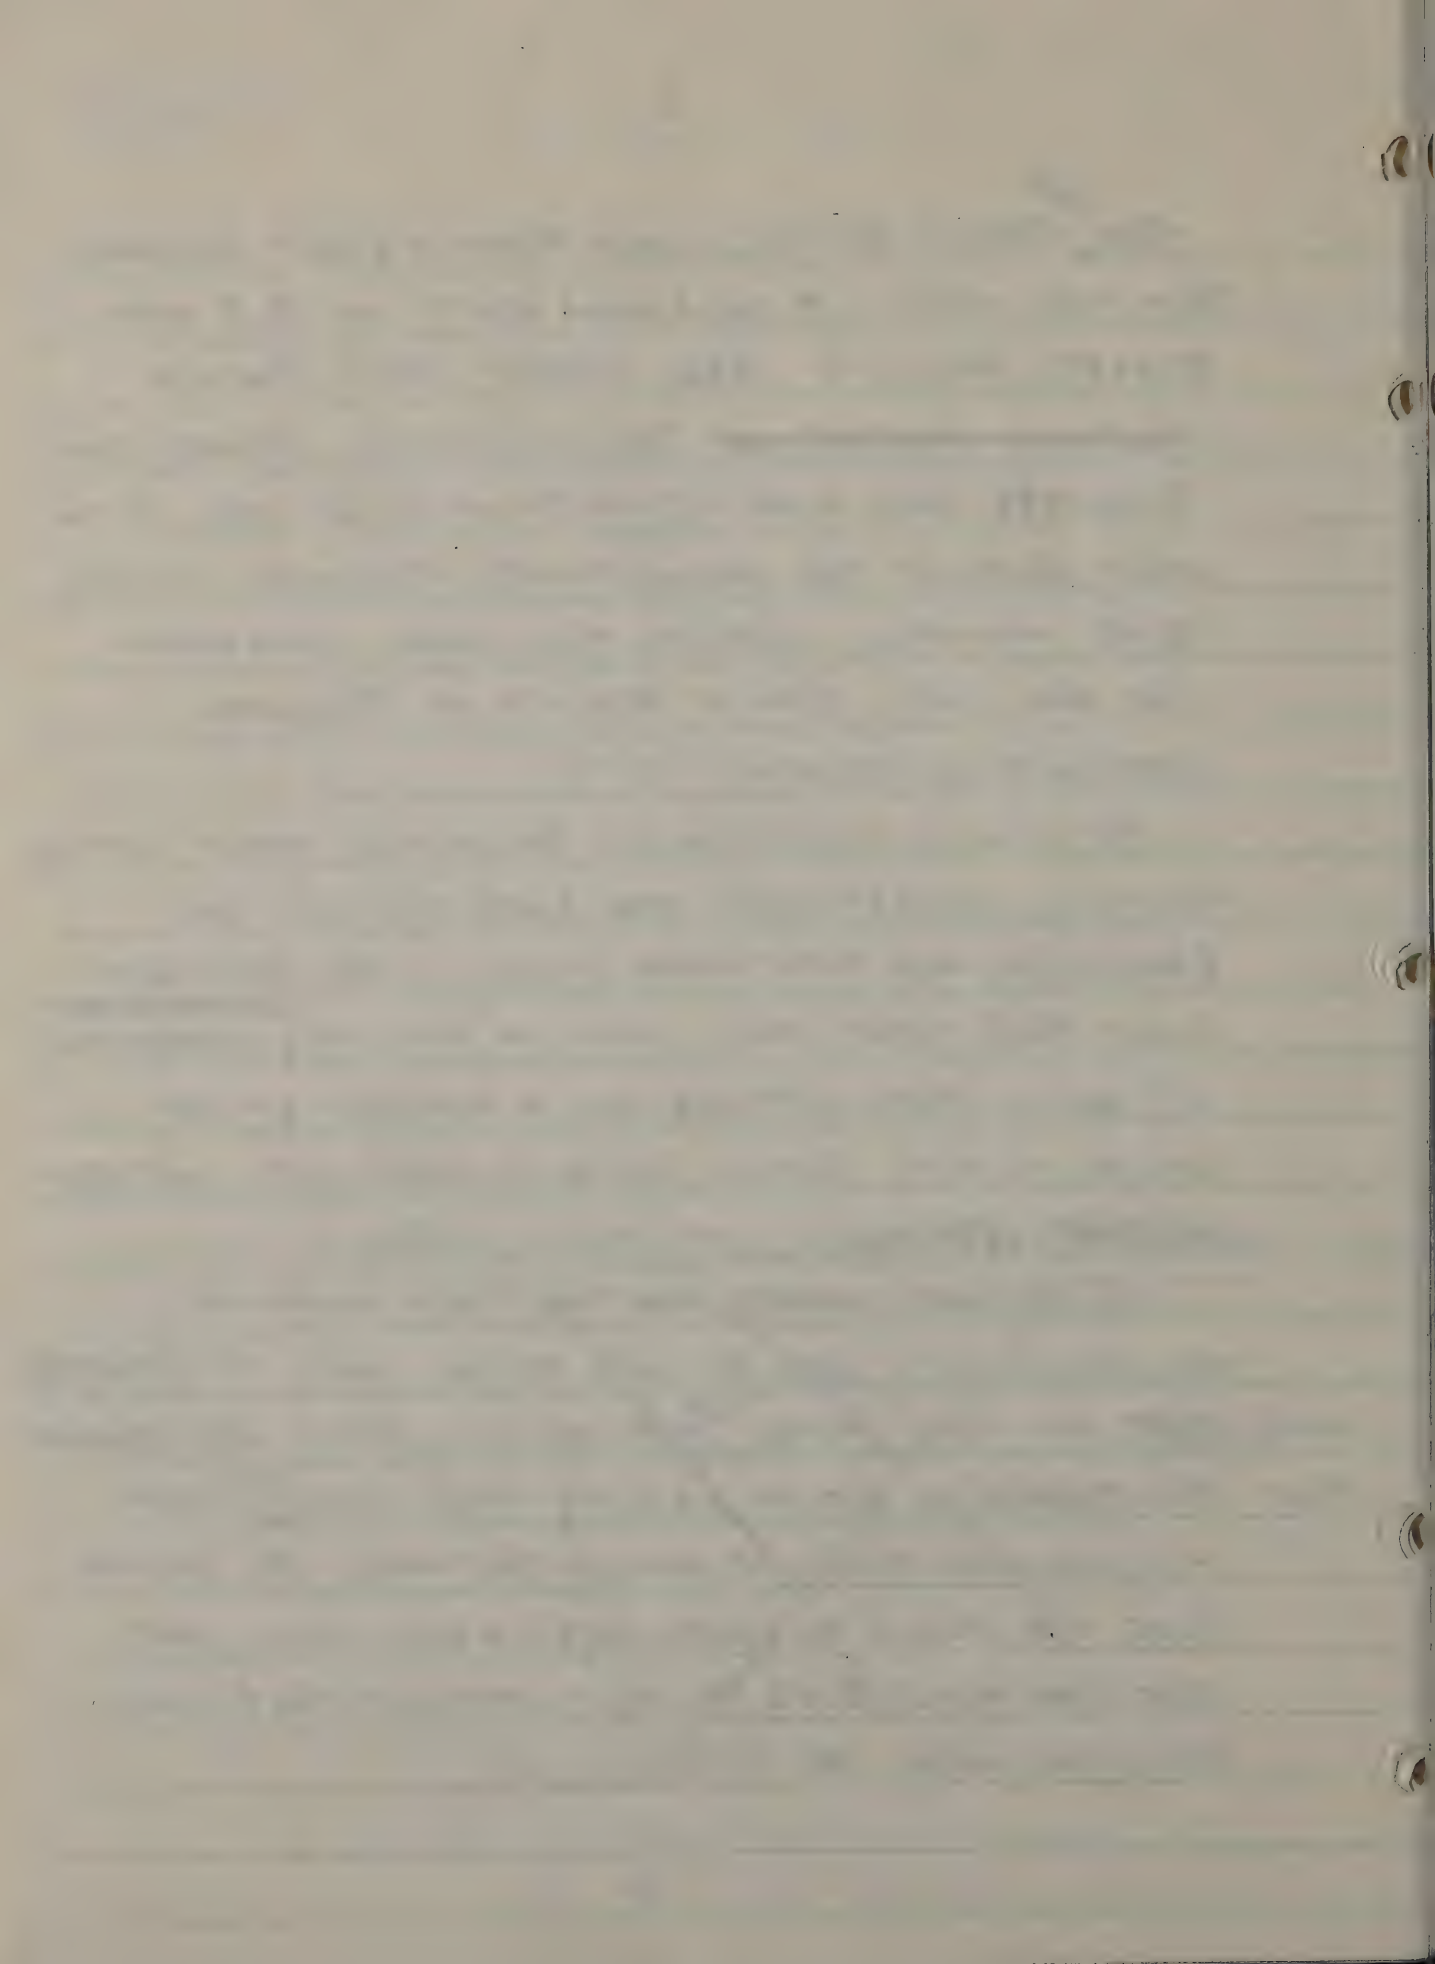

* AT TIME ^{THAT} ~~OF THEIR MARRIAGE~~ THEY WERE LIVING IN MORTON, KANSAS.

THE ^{NEW} FAMILY SETTLED ON A FARM A SHORT DISTANCE FROM THE HEART OF OKLAHOMA CITY ON N.E. 4TH STREET, AROUND 1892, THERE, THEY RAISED ~~ANOTHER FAMILY OF~~ TWO CHILDREN, AGNES VERN 9-14-1894 AND JOHN BRYAN DIXON 12-27-1896; BOTH WERE BORN AT THE DIXON FARM. THE WIFE AGNES, DIED 10-10-1900, LEAVING THE SMALL CHILDREN FOR HIS CARE. SHE IS BURIED IN FAIRLAWN CEMETERY IN OKLAHOMA CITY.

MR. DIXON'S FARM RAISED BROOM CORN, WHEAT, COTTON, FRUITS, VEGETABLES, AND SOME CATTLE. HIS BROOM CORN WON FIRST PLACE HONORS IN THE OKLAHOMA STATE FAIR, MANY TIMES, ALSO IN NATIONAL ^{AND HAWAIIAN} COMPETITION. HE WAS A PEACE OFFICER AND A MEMBER OF THE OKLAHOMA CITY SCHOOL BOARD IN EARLY DAYS, HE RAN THE FARM OPERATIONS WITH HIRED HANDS.

~~MR. DIXON, OWNED ANOTHER FARM SOUTH OF OKLAHOMA CITY, AND HE WAS THERE, WHEN HE RECEIVED WORD THAT HIS WIFE AGNES ^{HAD} TAKING ILL WHILE RETURNING FROM THE THEATER IN OKLAHOMA CITY, SHE LOVED ^{THE} OPERA. IT IS BELIEVED THAT SHE WAS WITH CHILD. MR. DIXON RODE HIS HORSE SO HARD GETTING HOME TO HER THAT THE HORSE DIED ALMOST IMMEDIATELY UPON RETURNING HOME. HE~~

MR. DIXON OWNED ANOTHER FARM SOUTH OF OKLAHOMA CITY, AND HE WAS THERE, WHEN HE RECEIVED WORD THAT HIS WIFE AGNES HAD TAKEN ILL. SHE LOVED THE OPERA, AND WAS RETURNING FROM THE THEATER WHEN SHE TOOK ILL. IT IS BELIEVED THAT SHE WAS WITH CHILD. FRANCIS, RODE HIS HORSE SO HARD GETTING HOME TO HER, THAT THE HORSE DIED. HE DISPOSED OF THIS FARM SHORTLY AFTER HER DEATH.

ORAL HISTORY, RELATES THAT HE MADE TRIPS TO THE EAST TO SEE ABOUT PROPERTY IN MARYLAND, ON ONE OF THESE TRIPS HE MET "THE JERSEY LIL".

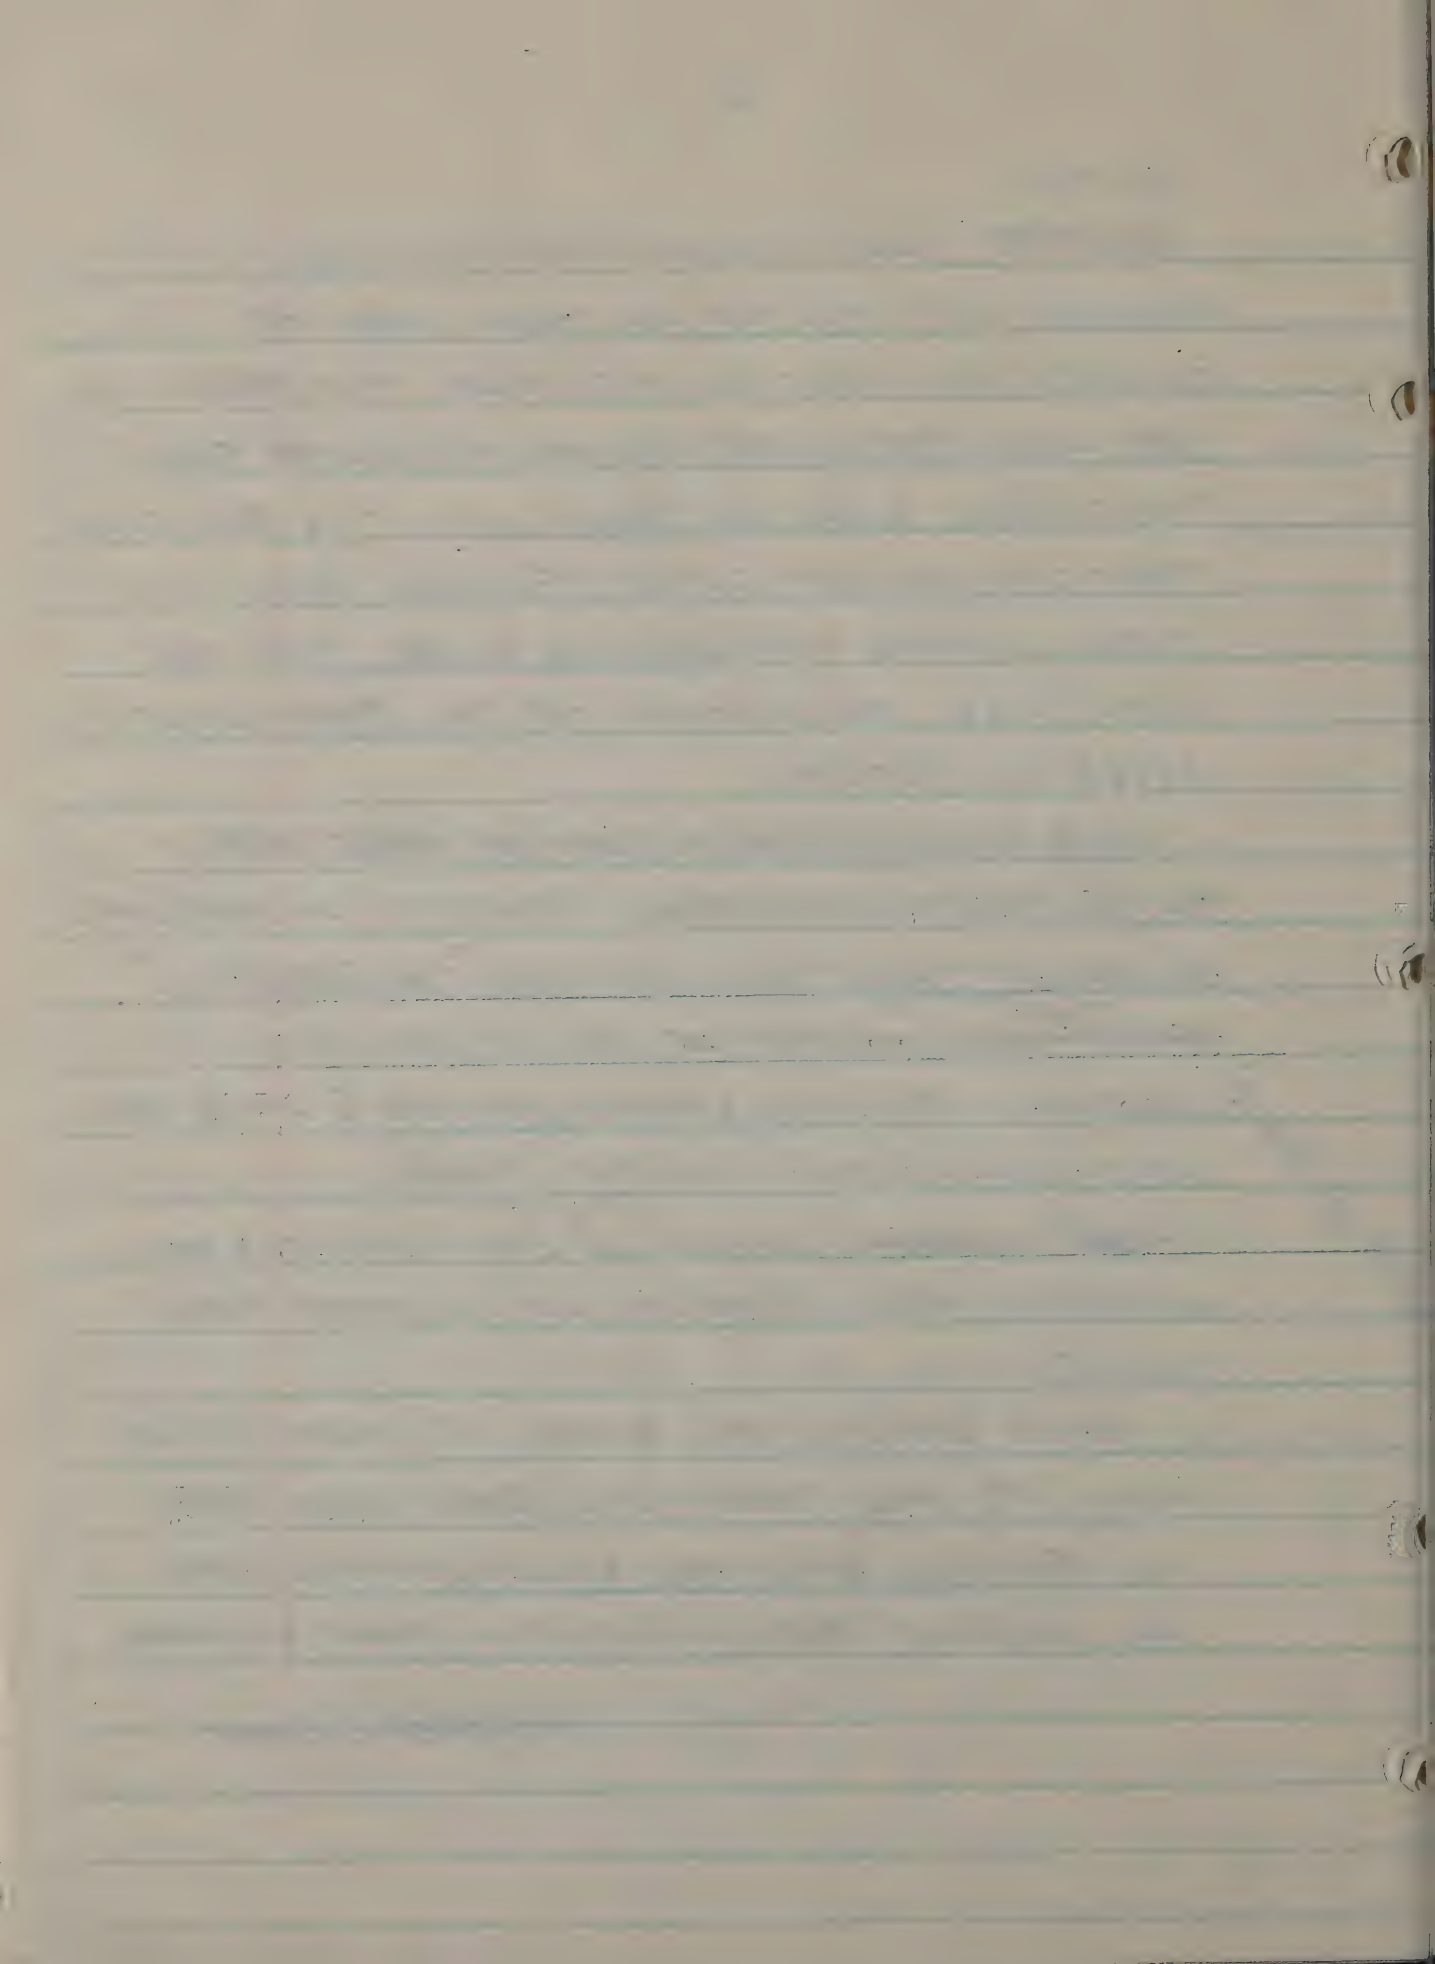

IF ^{THEIR} THEY WERE MARRIED ~~IT~~ WAS OF VERY SHORT DURATION. MR. DIXON'S DEATH OCCURRED 8-2-1918 AND HE IS BURIED BESIDE HIS WIFE AGNES.

DEAR: JOHN & TERRY

JUST WANT TO LET YOU KNOW THAT THE SERIES OF TESTS THAT I HAD, SHOWED NOTHING UNUSUAL, OTHER THAN CIRCULATION IS NOT AS GOOD AS IT ONCE WAS.

~~ENTER~~ ~~AS~~ TRY TO REWRITE THE DIXON FAMILY HISTORIES I UNCOVER CONFLICTS THAT SHOULD BE CLEARED UP.

① BASED ON NOTES TAKEN AT VARIOUS TIMES WE VISITED YOUR PARENTS. YOUR GRANDMOTHER AGNES, WAS BORN 4-29-1861 IN NEBRASKA CITY, NEBRASKA. THERE WAS A PICTURE OF HER TAKEN IN THAT TOWN? HER OBITUARY MAY STATE WHERE SHE WAS BORN.?

NEBRASKA CITY IS ABOUT 70 MILES DIRECTLY NORTH OF HORTON, KANSAS WHERE SHE WAS LIVING WHEN SHE MET F.H. DIXON. AND ONLY ABOUT 10

MILES FROM THE TOWN OF DENTON, (WHICH MAY HAVE BEEN DENTONVILLE IN EARLY DAYS) ^{WHERE DIXON HAD LIVED} THESE TOWNS

ARE ONLY 30 MILES WEST OF ST. JOSEPH, MO.

CENSUS RECORDS FOR 1870-1880 IN THESE AREAS

MAY YIELD YOUR GREAT GRAND PARENT'S NAMES?

② CATHERINE LOUISE, - FROM MY NOTES,
SHE CAME FROM ENGLAND, LOOKING FOR HER HUSBAND. THIS COULD BE PROVEN BY KNOWING WHERE THE FAMILY LIVED WHEN THE CHILDREN WERE BORN. THOMAS R. 1874, WILLIAM
1878. - THE 1880 CENSUS RECORDS - FOR 1880
WOULD LIST WHERE SHE WAS BORN, COUNTRY OR STATE.

③ IN MY LAST LETTER I THINK I SAID THAT HORTON WAS IN MISSOURI, AND IT SHOULD BE KANSAS. MY ERROR. THERE IS A HORTON IN MISSOURI, HOWEVER,

④ SOME OF THE CHILDREN OF F. H. DIXON'S FIRST MARRIAGE, LIVED AND DIED IN THE OKLAHOMA CITY AREA, ^{THIS} LEADS ME TO BELIEVE, THAT THEY MAY HAVE ALSO LIVED AT THE DIXON FARM.
MARGARET, BORN IN 1885 WAS ONLY 5 YEARS OLD WHEN HER FATHER MARRIED AGNES COLE, WHERE DID SHE AND HER OLDER BROTHER'S LIVE.
HERE AGAIN THE 1900 CENSUS WOULD LIST THE MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY.

TERRY, I HOPE I AM NOT PUTTING YOU TO ANY TROUBLE WITH MY QUESTIONS, BUT WHILE I AM AT
IT, I WOULD LIKE TO GET THE DETAILS AS ACCURATE
AS POSSIBLE. AS I REVIEW MY NOTES AND TRY

over

5. WHO TOOK CARE OF AND HELPED RAISE YOUR FATHER, AFTER HIS MOTHER AGNES DIED. A HOUSEKEEPER?

6. DID YOUR GRANDFATHER LEAVE A WILL - ? PROBATE COURT WOULD HAVE

I MUST CLOSE NOW AS I AM TAKING UP TOO MUCH OF YOUR TIME, ON THINGS THAT MAY NOT BE OF INTEREST. YOU KNOW ITS LIKE WORKING ON A PUZZEL AND TRYING TO FIND THE MISSING PIECES.

TAKE CARE, LET ME KNOW WHAT YOU CAN.

Dearest Uncle Al ^{and} Aunt Frances -

Guess you thought I'd never write - wasn't that I didn't think of you but the time just seemed to fly by. Have had houseguests, etc. And seemed I could never stay at your genealogy material long enough to finish it or was waiting to hear from Ellen Hensley.

Before I say something about the info you wanted, Uncle Al, I do want to say that I hope both of you are fine. According to TV, papers, etc., "you all" have had some pretty bad weather. We have been real lucky so far. In fact, we really ~~needed~~ ^{needed} moisture - hadn't had any measurable "precip" since November. But it finally came last weekend when we got over 5" of rain. Early this A.M. we had some light freezing rain & they are predicting 1"-3" of snow tonight but as of now it seems to have stopped so who knows. On the TV weather at noon, it was reported that northern Oklahoma had 5"-7" of snow already. I don't mind the snow as much as I dislike the ice & sleet.

Uncle Al, as you see I have made some changes & additions. If you can't make out my scribbling, please write & I'll try to explain. I called Ellen 3 times re her father's birthplace. Have note in your material re this. However, last night John said he remembered Uncle Paper & his youngest son, James, making a trip to Germany several years ago so we thought he would probably know Uncle C's birthplace. I called Ellen again this A.M. to get his address. I won't promise to answer your letter as much as he generally does not even send me a Xmas card but with you, he might well answer your questions. It's worth a try. His address is: James C. Fleck

1001 S. Travis

Re my grandfather — Is your information regarding Mary L. Gools as his mother from records or otherwise? The reason I'm asking is because I was always under the impression that Ma Gools (Dad's grandmother) got the name Gools from her second marriage to a "Mr Gools". When or if Mr. Slison died, I don't know. I'm probably wrong but thought I'd mention this, thinking her maiden name might have been something else. I asked Herb about this & he, too, thought Gools was married to our great grandmother. I have the family bible but it only begins with the marriage of my grandfather & grandmother Slison.

As far as "the Jersey Lil'" is concerned -
I wanted just as soon you left this chapter out of Grandpa's life inasmuch as he was married to her for a very, very short time. But you do as you think best.

Sure sorry to hear about the bad business conditions in Ft. Wayne - seems it's pretty bad lots of places. Fortunately we have been and are very lucky here. With General Motors shut down here for awhile, we still only have about a 3% unemployment rate. And even with the high interest rates, the homes in this area are still selling very well. In fact, the more expensive the faster they seem to sell. Lots of oil money, etc, I guess.

John is very, very busy on his job - wish the load would lighten up. John Rex received a very healthy raise last month for which we are very grateful. Guess we're always pleased to see our children doing well. He hadn't had a vacation in a year so he went to Crested Butte, Colorado, for a week early in January to do some skiing. Had a great time.
Mark is fine - still likes his job at Holers.
The NJ's are fine. However, Bryan & Lois had

I had bout with the Flu. Lois was n sick for about 2 weeks. How is Aunt Jessa? Haven't heard from her ~~in~~ so long. I truly worry about her out there all alone. Know she would n leave. Has she said anymore about getting into the High Rise? I'm beginn to wonder if she ever will.

Guess I'd better close for now and sh linner. Hope both ~~the~~ ^{of} you are great.
Would love to have a long visit with you two. Sure wish you lived closer.
Give Bob + family our best and write when you can.

Much love,

Terry

"This certifies" that F. H. Dixon ~~and~~ of Horton, Kansas, and Agnes Cole of Horton, Kansas, were married in Kansas City, Missouri, on Oct. 28, 1890.

SPRING CO

* It is understood that F. H. Dixon owned property in Maryland, in addition to owning two farms in the O. C. area at one time. It was said that he met "the Jersey Lil" on one of his trips to the East. It was also said that the marriage was of very short duration.

Note: Uncle Al - When Grandpa Dixon disposed of the farm in South Okla. City is not known exactly. It is known that he owned it at the time of Daddy's mother's death. Dad's mother loved the opera and was on her way home from the opera when she became ill. I understand she was expecting again, ^{had a miscarriage,} and ^{hemorrhaged} ~~hemorrhaged~~ to death. It was always told that Grandpa was in South O.C. checking on the farm there & when he learned about Grandma he rode his horse so hard getting home to her that the horse died almost immediately upon return home. He supposedly never cared for that particular garden that - too many sad memories - so I have always felt he sold that farm soon after Grandma's death. But this is only supposition on my ~~part~~. part. T. B.

FAMILY HISTORY

Francis Hanson Dixon, was born June 20, 1853, in Durham, England, the son of _____ Dixon and Mary L. _____ Golls. He came to America with his parents as a baby. The date of their immigration is not known, however if Francis was a baby, we would estimate between, 1854 and 1857. The family lived in Illinois, St. Joseph, Missouri, and Dentonville, Kansas, as the family migrated west.

Francis, probably recieved his early education in the rural schools where he lived and worked as a farm hand and cowboy.

He was about 20 years of age when he married Catherine _____, and they raised a family of five children, Thomas R. 8-21-1874; William, 10-30-1878; Frank, 6-25-1881; Edward Michael, 9-9-1883; and Margaret Dixon, 12-12-1885. When the family settled on the Dixon farm is not known. The farm was a short distance from the heart of Oklahoma City, on 4th. street. A check of the farm abstract may reveal when the farm was settled. Francis and Catherine were divorced about 1890. She is buried in Denver, Colorado.

The family may have taken part in the "Historic Run" of April 22, 1889, which was prior to Oklahoma becoming a state in 1907.

Francis, then married Agnes Cole, and raised another family of two children, Agnes Vera, 9-14-1894; and John Bryan Dixon, 12-27-1896; both were born at the Dixon farm. The wife Agnes, died 10-10-1900, leaving small children for his care. She is buried in Fairlawn Cemetery in Oklahoma City.

Mr. Dixon, remarried, a lady only known as Jersey Lill. Futher research needed to uncover her name, dates, place, etc.

Mr. Dixon's farm raised wheat, cotton and some cattle. He also was a peace officer in Oklahoma City. His death occured 8-2-1918, and he is buried beside his wife Agnes.

No doubt many stories could be written about the rugged life of these early settlers who worked so hard to tame and make the west a better place to live.

The above story is based on oral history as related by Anna and Bryan Dixon, in 1972 to the writer.

NOTHING KNOWN ABOUT HIS LAST MARRIAGE.

Wednesday, June 9th

Dear Aunt Frances + Uncle Al —

No, I didn't become waterlogged with all the rain we've had but seems I've been unusually busy. Think of you everyday - hope all's well with you, two.

John was really sick over the weekend. Think he had some form of colitis. Is much, much better now. Guess the rest of us have been fine.

Uncle Al, I've had the following info from Agnes Sawyer re Catherine Wise Paymer for a couple of weeks + can't to send it to you before now. I think with this information it would be better for you to write again so you could ask what you'd like. This is the info-tion:

Katherine L. Raemer

Sec. 20, Lot 1, Block 20

his pins down the location of her grave & the correct spelling of her name. I feel if Fairmount had been the least bit helpful they could have looked to see if Catherine was spelled with a "K" or if Raemer could have been spelled another way. But it's plain to see they weren't interested. For what it's worth, her husband's name was Maurice H. Raemer & he died August 1904. Agnes said he ~~was~~ ^{is} not buried beside K. L. R. - that apparently he was either married before or after their divorce & is buried beside that wife. Agnes also said that she had two dates of death for K. L. R. - 7-2-1914 & 7-3-1914. Hope this helps you in this matter.

(3)
May was the wettest on record, we had over 12" of rain officially & I really think we had more than that here in Edmond. I will say - everything is sure pretty & green. Our crops are lush - looks like a rain rest almost.

Sent package to Greg & Jeanne (in care of Bob) last week. Hope they've got it by now. Doesn't seem possible he's old enough to be getting married. Will you all be able to attend the wedding? Sure would be nice.

Last Friday afternoon & evening, the new stockyards building (the old one, a historic landmark, burned about 2 years ago) was dedicated.
It is really nice - has beautiful atrium,
etc. Had open house, barbecue, dedication ceremonies, & a country/western and for dancing that night. Must have seen 6,000 people there & I never saw so much barbeque. John accepted the building on behalf of the Directors of the Alabama National Stockyards Company. Was real proud of him. Had many visiting dignitaries.

And to my complete surprise, in the lobby of this building is a large bronze plaque with the officers & directors names engraved thereon. I couldn't help but be proud to see John's name engraved on the plaque - or prominently I guess as much as anything. I kidded him about being "immortalized" now. Ha He just smiled in his very modest way.

Sounds like Bob & DeEtte had a wonderful trip. And John really enjoyed reading about the "caboose".

If Grandpa had any brothers or sisters, I never heard about them.

As for your not hearing from Frances
(Ed) Rhodes or James Fleck, I'm not surprised, especially as far as Francie is concerned.
It would be a very pleasant surprise me. She won't even call or speak to her sister, Ellen, any more - all on account of her dogs. It's all so silly. Ellen has tried to be friends - I don't know what has driven her into Frances.

I guess I'd better close for now.
Hope both of you are fine. Give everyone our love.

Lots of love,

Terry

Note that Grandma Agnes & her two children died on the same day of the month; and the two children died in the same month - only different years. I find that almost hard to believe - what a coincidence!

The marriage of F. H. Dixon and Agnes Cole: "This certifies that F. H. Dixon of Horton, Kansas, and Agnes Cole, of Horton, Kansas, were united by me ----- at Kansas City, Mo. on the 28th day of October in the year 1890."

what happened. But one thing I'm almost positive of is that the children lived w/ Grandpa & his bride, Agnes. And, confidentially, from what I heard from time to time, some of Dad's half-brothers tried to make her life as miserable as possible at times.

About who raised Dad - apparently Grandpa hired a housekeeper called "Mrs. Smith." I think she was pretty nice. Grandpa always worked in the city during the week, I guess, and she & Aunt Maggie (when she got older) looked out for Dad and Aunt Agnes. There again, I guess some of Dad's half-brothers could be pretty rough on him at times. I remember Dad always admired Uncle Tom a lot. He was a college graduate and very intelligent.
He was also a fantastic baseball player, having had the opportunity to play with ^{the} St. Louis Cardinals but understand his wife didn't want to leave this area. Guess he was a pretty successful man, businesswise.
Agnes Sawyer said Grandpa always wanted everyone to have a good education. Apparently, after she was born, she, too, lived at Grandpa's for awhile. I think you can readily see Grandpa's life was not a "bed of roses."

Yes, Grandpa apparently left a will. Before I forgot it, I guess you know he lived in St. Joseph, Mo. for awhile - when I don't know.

Are you ~~going~~ ^{going} to write to the Fairmont Cemetery in Denver re Catherine L. (Elison) Laymer?

I'm pleased James Fleck responded to your letter.
Have you heard more since his telephone call to you?
Incidentally, where in Germany were Grandma & Grandpa app

Uncle Al - I'm sure you can tell from the above that I did not answer your questions in a very methodical order but I do hope it will be of some assistance to you.

3 Special Judges Named in County

By Ray Robinson

Oklahoma County's district judges appointed three new special judges at their monthly judicial conference Wednesday.

Chief Judge William S. Myers said the 14 district judges selected Floyd W. Taylor, Michael Wayne Speegle and Bryan Charles Dixon. The selection at the closed conference was made from a list of 40 applicants.

Taylor, 39, has been a member of the Oklahoma bar since 1968 and first assistant to Attorney General Jan Eric Cartwright since 1980. He represented the attorney general's office in the school land commission case decided last month by district Judge Joe Cannon.

Taylor has also served as general counsel to the state departments of transportation and highways.

Speegle, 38, has been a practicing attorney in Oklahoma since 1972 and recently made an unsuccessful run for the state House of Representatives. Aside from private practice, he has worked in the Oklahoma County district attorney's office and served as a special referee in the county juvenile court.

Dixon, 30, was admitted to the Oklahoma bar in 1977. He has been associated with various law firms and was appointed municipal judge in Del City last year. Dixon will be the district court's "traveling judge," holding court in Midwest City about once a week.

The three will replace special judges Don Howard, James Gullett and Bill Page. Howard was elected to the state Court of Appeals, while Gullett and Page were elected to district judgeships.

Engineers May Value Properties in Del City

U. S. Corps of Engineers officials may determine this week if the appraised value of two properties needed by Del City for the Crutcho Creek Flood control project are too expensive and the project must be re-routed.

Ted Pool, Del City attorney, said the corps is consulting with the three railroads affected to determine if two sections of railroad tracks on the properties on NE 4 can be relocated on other property.

Court-appointed appraisers last week placed an $86,770 value on the properties owned by J. B. Dixon and Dan Devine needed for railroad relocation rights-of-way for the flood control project.

Pool said he will file the commissioners' appraisal report in district court Tuesday to continue condemnation proceedings, unless the corps notifies him it wishes to re-route the tracks' relocation.

Pool said corps officials first asked Del City to obtain the properties to reduce the over-all cost of the original Crutcho plan, which called for another relocation route.

He said the appraisal price would not reduce the project's cost, so the corps may decide to follow the original plan.

A board of commissioners was appointed in July to determine value of the properties when condemnation suits were filed against the property owners by Del City after negotiations failed to reach an agreement.

Realignment of the tracks would require 2.75 acres of Dixon's land, cutting it almost in half. One acre of Devine's land would be needed.

The condemnation suits are the only remaining hold-up of the project for drainage channel improvements along Crutcho Creek, Cherry Creek and parts of Soldier Creek.

Del City, Midwest City and Oklahoma City, the three cities the project affects, are required to pay for all rights-of-way needed, relocation of utilities and reconstruction of highway bridges in the way of channelization.

FARM LIFE HAD IT'S UP'S AND DOWN'S; THE DROUGHT AND DEPRESSION OF THE 1930'S BROUGHT ON HARD TIMES, WITH POOR CROPS AND OVER 100° HEAT, KILLING THE CATTLE ETC. EARLY IN THE 1930'S THE OIL BOOM CAME TO THE OKLAHOMA CITY AREA. HOWEVER, OIL WELL'S WERE NEVER DRILLED ON THE DIXON FARM. IT HAD BEEN LEASED BY TOM B. THE SON NORBERT STILL OPERATES THE DIXON FARM.

FAMILY HISTORY

John Bryan Dixon, a native of Oklahoma City, was born 12-29-1896, at the farm home. He was the son of Francis Hansen and Agnes (Cole) Dixon, who were early residents of Oklahoma City, this was prior to Oklahoma becoming the 46 th. State.

The family lived on a farm, located east of the North Canadian river on North 4th. street. Bryan and his sister Agnes, grew up at the farm home without the help of their mother, who died when they were small children.

Bryan received his early education in the neighboring schools, and broadened his knowledge by working on the farm. In 1919 he met, Miss Anna Marie App, when she came to visit her cousin Casper Fleck, who was working at the Dixon farm. He had married Bryan's sister Agnes the year before. Miss App, was the daughter of Gregory and Anna Marie (Sauter) App, of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

The marriage of Bryan and Anna took place in Oklahoma City, on Labor Day, 1919. They lived at the farm home where they raised a family of three children, Teresa Eileen, 7-5-1920; Norbert Joseph, 5-24-1922; and Virginia Ann, 6-14-1930. Anna's parents and her sister Frances went to Oklahoma, by train, to be with her at the time of the birth of their first child.

Farm life had it's up's and down's, the drought and depression of the 1930's, brought on hard times, with poor crops and 100 degree heat, killing the cattle. Late in the 1930's the Oil Boom around the Oklahoma City area never reached to their farm, however there were oil tanks and pump stations installed on the far end of the property.

Bryan ran the Dixon farm up until the time of his illness, about 1974, when his son Norbert took over the operation. Mr. & Mrs. Dixon, were members of the Catholic Church, and aided in the establishment of new parishes as the city grew.

Mr. Dixon, died 11-10-1976, and is entombed in Resurrection Cemetery. Mrs. Dixon, after a lengthy illness, followed her husband in death 5-17-1978. She is entombed beside him. This closes a chapter on a couple of hard working people, who made this a better place to live.

Their son Norbert Joseph Dixon, still operates the farm, and carries forward the Dixon family name.

9 Jul 82 - Mon nite

Dear Aunt T -

Got your letter that you put in the other purse and delayed mailing for a month - glad to hear someone else does things like that. After we go to all the trouble to write - ~~That's~~ what we get for having more than one purse. Im always leaving the charge slips/^{in my purse}where I've charged something and then when the bill comes in, I cant remember what I charged. NJ is always wondering how I can do things like that. Of course, I get a few of them out of his pockets that are headed for the washing machine, too, so I dont feel so bad.

Am enclosing the clipping about NJ's latest escape. That guy! I thought when we got rid of the motorcycles, I didnt have to worry about him any more. Never thought his faithful ole red tractor would turn on him. NJ said he thought the tractor was made at him because we were going to sell it. The Good Lord and everyone else was sure with him that day, or he would not have survived. I still get chills when we go back to the farm and see where it happened. I was down by the river mowing with the little tractor and he was just west of the house (out near where the light pole is west of the bathroom window) and first thing I knew someone had motioned me to get up the hill fast. My heart stopped when I saw the tractor upside down as I have always really hated big equipment and have been afraid of it. Then too, so many times we plan and plan and work and work so we can retire and enjoy/life a little and something happens. I just never thought it would be the tractor as NJ is so good at handling any piece of machinery he ever touched. I guess it was just one of those quirks and the ground was soft and it gave way on the one side, flipping the tractor over. Thank God for that little tree that caught part of the fender and kept it from crushing his upper part. Only his left leg and left pelvic area was involved and now it is only his left leg - but we went to the doctor last Friday and the doctor said it had really improved from the last time we saw him (10 days ago). He has had the muscle torn and it just curled up into a ~~knot~~ knot about halfway between the knee and hip - that is where the tractor had him pinned. The specialist said the muscles and nerves that were severed were not the important ones which make the leg work - so he was lucky there, too. His whole left leg at one time looked like liver - it was so black and blue. The doctor is giving him medicine to get rid of that and also the blood clots that still hang on. There doesn't seem to be much to do about the knot on his leg where the muscles bunched up - but they seem to be going down some. About the only real bad things left are the blood clots, which we can feel - but they too are getting smaller and smaller. The doctor said about another month of being real careful, taking hot baths/soaks, medicine, and not doing anything too physical. He has to keep his foot elevated a lot. No travel at this time, so guess we will just spend our summer in OKC ~~and~~ and be grateful we are still together.

Greg and Sheryl came up last weekend with their dog, Bowler. Our cat has finally gotten used to the dog and they now stay in the same room - but snarl and bark still. Greg & Cheryl are fine. Cheryl's company is in the light fixture business and they are just barely holding on - they have had to let go about half their employees. Cheryl is in charge of the computerized warehouse stock and I guess she knows more about the basic operation of the firm than anyone, so they have ~~kept~~ kept her on - but fired all her help. If the housing market would ever open up again, things would be a lot better. Greg is the same as ever - lovable...

Bart is the same too. He has to double up now that NJ is laid up. Really keeps us all busy mowing lawns, trimming, and just the general run of the mill things. Bart has been a great help too in helping to dispose of the ~~farm~~ farm equipment since NJ can't do much. We have been able to sell a lot of it just by word of mouth - we have never advertised except for the combine, and we sold it on the first ad. Still have some equipment left, but one guy wants most of it - so doesn't look like we will have any trouble there. We will have to postpone selling the furniture and things from Grandpa/grandma until later this fall. Maybe Virginia can come down then and ~~help~~ help. George bought an airplane and he said they might fly down.

DIXON

George has take n flying lessons and I guess is real good at it. They fly to their condo in Myrtle Beach on weekends, which saves them so much time. He bought a 6 passenger one first, and has now trAded up to a bigger one with twin engines. Bette and her husband have moved back to NY and are living with Bette's mother-in-law (the father-in-law recently died) - I think they spend most of their time at Virginia though as VAand Geo have a swimming pool and it is nice to entertain 3 small ~~girls~~ girls in. VA does her exercises in it and it really helps her arms. So far she has checked out okay - there is one more test they take next month and then they think she will be clear. Of course, VA still worries because that dumb doctor didnt catch it sooner, and it got into her lymphnodes.

Well, we have to go to the farm tomorrow to locate a pipeline that goes across the field. NJ was able to get a real nice young farmer to take over the farming and NJ wants to be sure when he plows, he doesnt hit the pipeline. We have a metal detector, so hopefully that will help.

Hope all is well with you and that you keep healthy. Seems you have had enough. Bet your flowers are beautiful . I still remember your rose trees - thought they were the prettiest things I ever saw.

Love -

Th. N. J. D.

Near Tragedy Averted

By Jeanne Tierce

Through quick and decisive action on the part of Del City Street Department crewmen, tragedy was averted on Friday, July 2, 1982.

N.J. Dixon and his wife, after many years, had decided they had put in enough hard work at the farm on N.E. 4th Street at 4501, just north of the City yard. They were going to take it a little bit easier for a change ... maybe travel some. They had even gone so far as to sell the farm equipment and the tractor was to be picked up Monday by the new owner. "Well," Dixon told his wife, "I'm gonna take care of one last job ... just a couple of scoops of dirt and that will be that." He didn't know how prophetic those words were. Dixon climbed on the 5 ton tractor, just as he had done a hundred times before and started her up, and moved down among a grove of trees on a fair slope of land. Mrs. Dixon was working some distance away on another part of the place. Dixon moved one bucket-full of dirt. In just a few more minutes he'd be finished. Then suddenly the tractor began to tip.

Tractors are pretty stable machines until the center of gravity is altered. The combination of the slope and the load of dirt made the difference and before Dixon could jump clear, over went the tractor, pinning Dixon's left leg under the steering wheel. The tractor caught on an edge of a tree. Dixon knew one wrong move on his part, or if the tree gave way, the 5 ton monster would crash full upon him. All he could do was pray and call for help, hoping someone would hear him. The minutes dragged by, it seemed like hours. Dixon was conscious all the time.

At last he heard a truck, if he could just make them hear him.

Friday, July 2, all the men checked in for work and were sent out to various jobs in the City. Rick Tatum of the Del City Street Department and his new partner, Paul Frizzell had just received an assignment, they loaded into the department dump truck, drove out of the yard on N.E. 4th, turned west and then stopped at the railroad track before moving on. In that one short instant, they heard a faint cry for help. The two men discovered Dixon pinned under his tractor.

Dixon

Tatum didn't waste any time. He got on the radio, called for an ambulance, then called for additional help from the city's larger equipment and notified the Fire Department.

Tatum and his partner Frizzell then tried to maneuver the dump truck to pull the tractor off Dixon but the precarious position of the tractor and the sandy soil made it impossible to proceed. They couldn't do it alone, it was too dangerous.

About this time, Allen Davis, garage mechanic arrived with a winch truck. One miscalculation would result in death for Dixon, or at least permanent injury.

Ervin L. Gates, Superintendent of the Street Crew arrived, as did David J. Hopkins, Director of Public Works. By this time a number of other employees arrived from the City Public Works yard. Everyone spoke in hushed tones. The winch truck was moved in closer and the dump truck driven by Tatum moved into position. After careful calculations and working together they very slowly raised the tractor.

After what had seemed an eternity to Dixon, he was free. He was rushed to the emergency room and at 3:00 p.m. after a thorough examination, Dixon was released.

Miraculously, he had only minor injuries. His leg from hip to knee is as black as the tarps and he is on crutches, but so glad to be here.

Mrs. Dixon cannot seem to find enough ways to show her gratitude for the speed and expertise of the City Employees. Personal thanks and phone calls just wouldn't do (although she did all that too).

Mrs. Dixon prepared lunch for all personnel several days later.
